AN OPPORTUNITY TO TEACH

Join us for an exciting one-day event that teaches people how to choose seafood that is not only good for their bodies, but for the environment as well. We welcome seafood purveyors looking to expand their client base; restaurants eager to embrace the sustainable seafood movement; and experts who can help inform consumers how to choose the right fish for their dish. This is an educational but FUN-FILLED event that includes seafood sampling, chef demonstrations and interactive exhibits.

Estimated attendance: 750

WHAT YOU GET:

We will supply you with a 10'x10' booth with two eight-foot tables, two chairs and electricity.

WHAT YOU MUST PROVIDE:

- Information on how your organization is addressing seafood sustainability or related ocean-health issues.
- All the materials you need to make booth lively and inviting—banners, logo tablecloths, videos, posters, etc.
- Staff to load in and out, set up and provide an interactive experience with visitors through games or activities.
- If you're planning a giveaway, please bring enough for 750 guests.
- Proof of insurance with a rider specifically naming Cabrillo Marine Aquarium and Friends.
- A high-resolution logo for inclusion in the Sustainable Seafood Expo program book.
