

Thar She Blows!

How well do you know your whales? Use the clues to figure out the words for the puzzle!

Across

3. This type of body shape makes it easier to move through the water.
7. The part of the body that is near the water's surface; the whale's back.
8. Many dolphins have a _____ that sticks out in front of them, which is actually the tip of their mouth.
9. The word biologists use to include all whales, dolphins and porpoises.
10. These are whales that have baleen.
12. The bulbous structure on Odontocetes between the nostril and the upper jaw.

Down

1. Whales have these at the ends of their tails.
2. _____ fins, also called the flippers.
4. Baleen whales have two of these, toothed whales only have one.
5. These are whales that have teeth.
6. Some whales have no teeth at all, but plates of _____, made of keratin.
11. Odontocetes have these in one or both jaws.

Word Bank (for younger students)

Baleen

Blowhole

Cetacean

Dorsal

Flukes

Melon

Mysticete

Odontocete

Pectoral

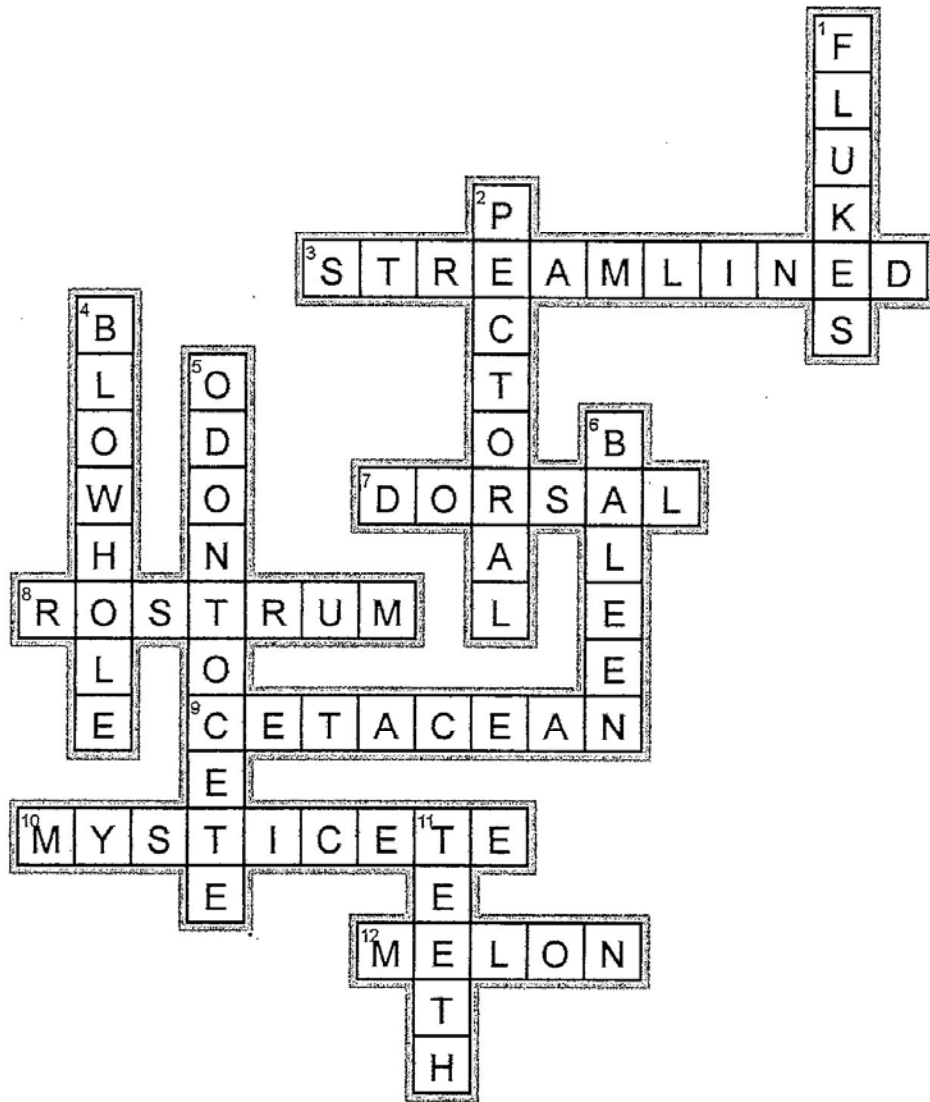

Rostrum

Streamlined

Teeth

Answer Key

Thar She Blows!

EclipseCrossword.com