

Seahorse Anatomy

Can you label the body parts of a seahorse? Use the words below to help you!

- Eyes
- Tail
- Pouch
- Gills
- Fins
- Snout

Seahorse Anatomy

Seahorse Facts

- Male Pacific Seahorses can give birth to 1,000-3,000 babies every 15 days.
- Seahorses can live from 3 to 5 years.
- Seahorse eyes can move independently to help it spot prey.
- Of the 34 species of seahorses, 6 are considered vulnerable, 2 are endangered and 26 are unclassified.
- Seahorses live in warm, calm waters of harbors, estuaries and mudflats.